Local Style Show A Complete Success And Boost To City

By Mrs. Virginia Lively

The High School auditorium was almost filled to capacity on the night of May 13th, for the Fashion Show presented by the Safety Patrol Committee of the PTA, with the cooperation of the Merchant's Division of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

Forty-five outfits were modeled by 16 Belle Glade maids, and maids, and the garments ranged from play suits to formal.

Each model as she took her turn, received a round of applause and just as for the merchandise and the models were both lovely. In front of the closed curtains on the stage were arranged at vantage points three huge baskets of bouquets of flowers, interspersed with graceful palm fronds.

Violin and piano music consisting of appropriate numbers for each of the four groups of models, furnished by Mrs. S. R. Smith Jr., and Mrs. L. Parsons, and Mrs. David Stoddard, the latter receiving a real endorsement from Margaret Campbell served as ushers.

The front page of the program contained the picture of a pretty feminine figure, with a list of the names of the models, what they wore, and from what merchandising shop.

Comments were that the Fashion Show should become an annual or semi-annual affair. It was of course presented for the benefit of the newly organized School Safety Patrol and the Safety Committee reports gross receipts of $140.

"You Can Have It I Don't Want It Its Too Much For Me" Says Geo Scarborough In Resignation Of Job

City Commissioner George Scarborough, who led the ticket last August, when three new commissioners were elected to that body, on Monday sprung a surprise on the citizen, when he presented his written resignation to A. L. Wallis, clerk for the Chairman of the City Commission, effective after action taken by the Commission.

In an interview with a Herald representative, Mr. Scarborough, who is also vice-mayor and police magistrate and park committee chairman, stated, "I have long held the idea that a business man or men should take an active part in city affairs, believing that their experience could be used to good advantage in handling affairs of the city."

Packing Houses Former Polish PW Season Coming To Farm Laborer Asks An Early Closing Help For Family

The exodus of negro labor from the Glades points north began some days ago, when trucks and one semi-trailer, and a number of private cars, were being loaded with crates of packed corn, which have but a brief period yet to operate.

Sam Knight, who manages the Duda farm, closed down corn shipments, after a very successful season. He reports that from 150 acres of corn, that he had shipped around 28,000 crates of packed corn, and several hundred truck loads of corn in the 1947-48 harvest season. He plans on planting larger acreage for sweet corn next fall. Farmers who are raising field corn are very pleased with the progress being made by the crop, despite warm weather and the lack of refreshing rains.

The new sugar cane crop plantings are coming on swell, and the fields have seldom appeared better than at the present time. Some of the cane is now averaging six feet tall. If disaster does not strike again before the 1948-49 harvest should be a bumper one.

The rush activities of the local packing plants is over, and the packing and shipping of corn are being processed and shipped. Some corn and late beans are coming in on a decreased volume.

The season crop shipment may reach the eight thousand mark by the time the last consignment goes out. Truck and rail cars are in to pick up what vegetable crops obtainable.

Most of the state markets over the state have closed their season activities, and most of them report a very successful and profitable season for those clearing their products through those sources.

Visit Experiment Farm At Ruskin For Information

The Dickman Farm, at Ruskin, just outside of Tampa, has had more than passing interest to produce raisers and handlers, because of the special experiments being carried on there by the Federal and State Agricultural Departments, and commercial interests, in the handling, packing and shipment of tropical fruits, such as tomatoes, sweet corn and other commodities.

Experiments are carried on in the packing and handling of the protection of fruit by covering them with Pliofilm, a new cellophane type of covering, to prevent deteriorating of fruit while in shipment and sale on market. This has proven a very successful protection, as vegetables can still get air, but moisture, and will keep produce fresh from ten days to two weeks without spoilage or loss of quality.

To gain information on this process as carried on at Ruskin, Assistant County Agent, H. L. Speer, is planning to visit the Dickman Farm Co-Operative Association, Lee Hayman, of the Pioneer Growers and John Delany of the Okaloosa Co-Op at Pahokee, and likely John Tabit, are spending this Friday at the Dickman Farm, on an inspection of the experimental work, and to pick up information that will be of import to the Glades area.

Donkey Baseball Game Provides Much Hilarity

Well, at least a financial start, has been made for a public swimming pool in Belle Glade, as a large crowd went to Memorial Field, on Friday night, to see the benefit game of donkey baseball as played between the Lion and Rotary club members, with a number of the Business and Professional Women club members, added in as a bit of spice, and as field officials. The school band provided the music.

Everyone went to the field with a view of having a evening of merriment, and they enjoyed it, as the various riding episodes sure produced unlimited rounds of laughter. If some people could be taught to learn

Florida Power & Light Adopts Five Day Schedule

In order that more if its employees may enjoy a five day work week, Florida Power & Light Company, beginning June 5, will keep its business office closed on Saturdays, P. E. DeMoya, district manager, has announced.

Two full days rest and recreation on Saturday and Sundays will result, DeMoya stated, "and we feel that the public will agree with us in this step which benefits our employees. We are following a plan that many business firms have already adopted."

DeMoya stated that the local office will be open to the public from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, Monday through Friday. He stressed the door for emergency telephone calls, as in the past, may be made at any hour.

Customers who wish to pay their bills and payment through a slot in the door of the company's office. Envelopes are provided for this purpose, and the depositary is also available for "after hours" payments and in the evenings.

"Should the customer not have the exact change indicated by the bill," DeMoya explained, "a bill may be over-paid, and the excess amount will be credited on the next bill. This applies to mail payments, also. The majority of our customers already use the mail for paying bills, because of its convenience."

Local BPWers Again Hounded By The State Convention In Miami

Before the current club year the State BPW organization is elected periodically, named known as "The Florida Business Woman" as an organization publication.

During this year the publication was changed from an eight page pamphlet to a 36 to 40 page magazine, done in modern format and with content rivaling any similar publication in the U. S.

Local members are responsible for getting out this magazine and three of the four issues were printed by the Herald Print Shop.

Mrs. Florence Smith was the editor for the current year, with Mary Fox of WSWN as assistant, while Mary Fox acted as assistant advertising manager.

The report to the State Convention by Miss Sarah Creech is to the effect that each issue of the magazine was reviewed by members, throughout the State.

Miss Creech, retiring State President, was elected as Editor for the coming year.

Attending the convention in Miami Beach from the local office in addition to the above named, were Mrs. V. Roemer, State Corresponding Secretary, Gene Rushing, President of the local club, Audrey Jones, Vice-President-elect, Margaret Tharpe, and Miss Alma Murphy.

Corporations Ask For No Changes In Sugar Labor Wages

The annual hearing by the Department of Agriculture, on the sugar harvest labor wage program, was held at the Clewiston High School auditorium, in which the U. S. Sugar Co., the Okaloosa Sugar Co., and the Fellsmore Plantation Co-op., were the interested parties.

The hearing was held and testimony taken by the Department commissioners, and a decision on the issue will be reported later out of Washington.

The three interested corporations requested that no changes be made in the wage agreement that prevailed during the past harvest season. They did not need the need of the three corporations, and a union resolution, claiming that loaders, cut down real earning power, so that it disrupted the planting schedule of that provision.

Statement was entered into the record that the field labor of the three corporations were 90% foreign workers, brought in under contract agreement, and that in the 1948-49 harvest there would be much domestic labor available than in the past.

The company also requested that the prices to be paid contract growers not be disturbed for the reason that the sugar market had taken a big slump, dropping from $6.15 to $4.53, the hundred pounds, and might still go lower. The corporations all reported that they would have added cane acreage for cutting this season, and without losses by storm or flood, the decrease in the 1947-48 season should be made up.

Large labor crews are now employed in the cane fields doing the necessary weeding and cultivating work, and other crews are working on plant and farm equipment repair work.

Observation and Comment By John M. Gledhill

The old lady adjoining the Woman's club, which met with such bad treatment during the last hurricane, is again putting out its branches and growing along nicely. It paid to spend a dollar to save that early landmark of the Glades.

Personality and friendliness are two valuable assets for any one to possess. It pays in every line of activity. A group does not get very far among people.

Manager Hurley, states that when he gets all his trailer camp in order, as specified by approved plans and specifications, this city will have one of the best projects in the state to be found hereabouts, one that is a credit to the city.

Lake Harbor News
Under the able direction of Mrs. Glenn Hess, Miss Mildred Aubry and Miss Jones the Lake Harbor School had its first May Day Festival. In spite of being rained out one night, the Festival consisted of Mother Goose rhymes. The children were dressed in appropriate costumes. The May Pole Dance was most beautiful with its exact timing and array of colors. Harold White and Dannie Mathis were announcers and Benny Prewitt had charge of the music for the occasion. Mary Frances Perkins was crowned May Queen with William Townsend as king.

Mr. Cecil Perkins is now ill in the Belle Glade Hospital.

The First Baptist Church of Lake Harbor celebrated its annual Homecoming last Sunday. The well rounded program consisted of barbecue, a meeting of the Palm Beach County Singing Convention, visiting preachers, and all around fellowship. Friends from far and near attended the annual gathering.

The Lake Harbor Civic Club drew up a slate for the second primary and has distributed it to all club members and residents of this vicinity.

More Than 3,000 Workers Leave For Other Fields

The seasonal migration of agriculture workers is well under way according to A. M. Larriemore, Manager of the local office of the Florida State Employment Service. As of May 24, 309 farm workers had been certified to growers in other agricultural areas. Most of the migrant agriculture workers leaving the Glades have gone directly into Virginia and North Carolina for strawberry and potato harvest; however, some of the harvest hands planned to get several weeks' work in the Hawthorne, Florida section as bean pickers before going further north.

Out migration began slowly soon after May 1, with the volume increasing steadily until about the twentieth of the month. Crews varied in number from as few as 8 to as many as 250, with the average crew numbering 49. All of the outgoing crew leaders plan to return to this area during the fall of 1948.

The Florida State Employment Service, in cooperation with other State Employment Agencies, is endeavoring to aid farmers and farm workers in the right number of workers at the place needed, and at the time needed. Wilbur F. Kirchman, Farm Placement Interviewer, urges all growers or other agricultural groups to use the facilities of the State Employment Service when the need arises. The office is located in the Hendry Building.

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her men" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Jane really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

This troop was organized in September 1947 under the leadership of Mrs. E. H. Borchardt and Mrs. T. C. Pope. Their troop committee is composed of Mrs. G. M. Crewes, Mrs. N. N. Starling, and Mrs. Hayden Williams.

A delightful program was presented as follows: a piano selection by Jeanne Crewes, Laurine Anderson gave a violin solo accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Anderson, and solos were sung by Kay Young, Wanda Brent, Sara Ann Norman, and Betty Ann Pope. Presentation of Brownie Pins, National Audubon Society pins, and gifts were made to the girls.

A report of the years activities was given by Mrs. Pope with outstanding work being a sum of $175 earned by selling cookies, $45-netted on greeting card sales, a donation of $20 given to the local Girl Scout organization, and they are aiding financially on re-roofing the hut. Many worth while projects have been completed this year, and the girls have repaired and recovered the shelves in the hot kitchen and purchased some new dishes.

New officers are elected at the end of each month so that every girl has an opportunity to participate and conduct meetings.

Owen Godwin, who was in business in Belle Glade, for two years, is now in Kissimmee, where he is busy laying out his new trailer park, acquiring, and natural history museum and menagerie zoo.

His new project is located on a 16 acre tract of palm and forest land. At the rear he will erect a series of tourist cabins, and at the front he will have his main plant, and an eating plant.

Godwin plans to have a display of all types of Florida animals, fish and forestry relics. Located on road 17, two miles north of Kissimmee, he has a location and project that should be most attractive to the thousands of tourists that travel that way.

The Editor of DOUG discovered that we, the people, think the Vice-President of the United States should have more importance in the government than he does. The Vice President is in case anything happens to the President, he has been as inconspicuous as a ghost. He might just as well have stepped into an open manhole for all the publicity he got after the elections were over. Now the people think the assistant president should realize that he is an important figure in more pay and more power. Vice-President.

Local Baptists Attend Southern Convention

Rev. L. E. Enlow and wife, were in Memphis, Tenn., last week, where 10,000 Baptists from 20 states will meet at the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, expected to be the largest religious gathering in America in 1948.

Mr. Enlow said that the 26,764 churches cooperating with the Convention have a total membership of 6,270,819, representing a gain of 191,514 during the year 1947.

Climax of the session will be a giant afternoon evangelistic service in Crump Stadium with 30,000 people in attendance with Dr. Robert G. Lee, a Memphis pastor conducting.

The Southern Baptist Convention is one of the most uniquely organized groups in the world. The Convention is made up of "messengers," no "delegates," from the churches, in that no one carries authority to bind his congregation back to the policy of the Convention. The denominational program is purely one of cooperation, with its evangelistic, educational and social activities planned in accordance with New Testament teaching, and the churches left free to cooperate or not as they choose.

The churches do choose to cooperate is evidenced by the fact that they have exceeded $7,000,000 for the Southern Convention's world-wide program in 1947. Colleges, seminaries, hospitals, benevolent institutions and mission work in a score of countries bear testimony to their united work in fulfilling the Great Commission.

DONKEY RIDING
their business and places as were those donkeys, no one could stir them from doing their prescribed work.

They were field, base and scoring donkeys, and for players to get them to do anything else but what they were trained to do, brought out the funny episodes of the evening.

Certainly some of the players made spectacles in their attempt to mount, ride and guide their mounts, in head tumbling, rear exposures, erratic gyrations and unexpected postures were the order of the evening. Seeing the game and its unexpected developments, is where the amusing entertainment comes and lots more fun than trying to write an explanatory story of the big party.

Tom Watson admitted that he could not keep his donkey on the "beam." Luther Jones also proved that he knew more about handling negro crews than he did Georgia truck mules. Clarence Bailey lost all his dignity and Sewell lost his "royal" hat. Doc Creech managed to get on the "home run" donkey and the rest of the team.

With many of the players it was like a golf game, namely they down and one to go, but they never reached the desired goal for those darn mules were unpredictable in their notions and actions.

Some of the players thought that Sara Creech, as plate umpire, was favoring the other side, and threatened to pitch her out of the game and field, but calm judgment saved her, under the argument that the "gals" might spring some tricks of their own, equal to the donkeys.

Lion Mathis, heel-hawed over the sound system, trying to keep the big crowd informed as to the progress of the game. And that was no little task in itself. Yes, it was a great entertainment.

Sports Club Has Election Of Officers

Coach Wm. H. Cooke met with lettermen from all of the sports to organize a club for all boys lettering in one or more of the major sports. The club will be called the "B" Club, and officers elected are Billy Joe Leathers, president; Jerry Cooke, vice-president; Jim Buck Layfield, secretary and treasurer; and Lee Burke, sergeant at arms.

A committee consisting of four boys will draw up a constitution and by-laws for the club, and meetings will be held on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month. The committee is composed of Harry Duget, Jerry Cooke, Jim Buck Layfield, and Billy Joe Leathers.

The fact that these and other rumors about things that have happened by candidates and friends of candidates affecting our City employees and elected officials help prove my contention that we should not have a one man City government — on man Mayor, Municipal Judge, Chief of Police, etc. I think the wrong is in the laws governing our City set-up. I believe that the Mayor, Municipal Judge, City Clerk and Chief of Police all should be elected by the people. Then there could be no charge of a one-man machine, whether it is true or not.

—A. J. Richmond.
"It is very regrettable that the City of Belle Glade, its police force and its Mayor have received such unfavorable publicity because of the affidavits and other newspaper articles that have appeared in the Palm Beach papers. These charges, whether true or not, have given a black eye that will take years to erase."

"I believe that an investigation of these charges should be made, and if proven true, then the guilty persons should be handled in accordance with our laws. If an investigation shows no truth to the charges, then the accused persons should be cleared and freed of stigma."

"Our municipal set-up is dangerous to a progressive future when the elected Commissioners give powers to one man and then blindly endorse all actions of his office whether in the community's best interests or not. At the next meeting of the City Commission, I will introduce discussion on the holding of a special election wherein the citizens of Belle Glade can answer by vote the following questions: 'Shall we have a City Manager type of government?' 'Shall we have an elected or appointed Chief of Police?' 'Shall we have an elected or appointed Municipal Judge?'"

—W. W. Weeks
POLAND STUDIED AT W. S. C. MEETING

The meeting of the W. S. C. S. was opened Wednesday afternoon with a prayer by the Rev. Leander Spivey, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The Rev. T. Taylor presided over the business session during which time a letter was read from Dr. Leander Spivey thanking the Society for the donation sent for the support of the Mayan Indian girl student at Florida Southern College at Lakeland.

The devotions were led by Mrs. M. M. Sabiston, and a program on the missionary opportunities in Poland was presented by Mrs. Hugh Bradley. Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. H. L. Royal, Mrs. Charles Maynard, Mrs. T. C. Pope, and Mrs. George Royal.

Much Enthusiasm Being Shown For Soft Ball

Coach W. H. Cooke, who is to spend most of the summer in Belle Glade, supervising the new educational recreation program, states that he has found unexpected support for the project, and is most encouraged with the outlook.

He already has around a dozen firms and persons who are willing and anxious to sponsor teams in the soft ball league. In fact it looks as if there would be more sponsors than there will be players to form teams, and there may be "Dad's" teams formed.

The parties who have shown willingness to sponsor teams will meet with Coach Cooke, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at his school house office, to draw plans, and the successful ones will draw up the League Rules and Regulations and schedule.

tion of that nature, was just too much for me, so with some regretfulness in so doing, I made up my mind to resign, and did so, and that is the story."

City Solicitor H. D. Beck, in further pursuance of the city charter states: "that in occasion of a vacancy on the Board of City Commissioners, that body has no power to make a fill in appointment, but if the resignation and same is accepted, prior to 90 days from the acceptance of such resignation, then a special election must be called by the Commission within thirty days."

"If the resignation is not accepted prior to the 90 day period, then no special election is required, and a successor will be elected at the municipal election in September."

Under prevailing conditions, at the next election, three commissioners, will be nominated and elected, instead of two, as the terms of W. W. Weeks and Harold Rabin end at that time.

the coming fall and others seasons.

Agent Speer cites that the past season the Glades had a very favorable season for the distribution and marketing of our corn, being able to dispose of about everything that was grown. However, with the successful corn growing program in Florida, the Glades will be having plenty competition in future seasons, in a market war, and it behooves action to learn new ways of raising corn, harvesting, grading and shipping corn and tomatoes, and some other foods and fruits.
